

NILE UNIVERSITY

NU is the first research, Non-profit 'Ahleya' university in Egypt . It was inaugurated in 2007 as a world-class, internationally recognized education and research university.

The Information Technology and Computer Science School (ITSC) is seeking to hire:

Full-time and part-time Teaching Assistants to start Fall 2019 in the Computer Science and Medical Informatics UG programs and the Informatics PG program.

Successful applicants should have:

- Basic knowledge of computer science topics including programming languages(C++ & Python), database systems, algorithms, and artificial intelligence, among others.
- Good Knowledge in Big Data tools such as Hadoop, Pig, Hive, Impala, Spark and/or Data Science tools such as R and WEKA is desired.
- Good Knowledge in deep learning and tools such as TensorFlow and PyTorch is a definitive plus.
- Recent graduates from established universities with top ranking.

Interested applicants are requested to submit the following material:

Detailed CV highlighting experience as per the above stated requirements.
Names and contact information of three references (email address/phone)
Deadline for receiving applications is August 1, 2019.

All requested materials should be sent to careers@nu.edu.eg and please put in the subject line: 'Information Technology and Computer Science School - TAs'

For More information

www.nu.edu.eg/careers

0 2 3854 1842

w w w . n u . e g